WEDNESDAY JULY 26, 1893,

What Should a Sheriff Do? The Sheriff of Memphis has to face a fraction of the public because he allowed a mob to enter the jail of that city and take therefrom one LEE WALKER, whom they cut and stabbed, wounded and banged, and then burnt to ashes.

It is said that the Sheriff should have defended the prison and the prisoner, but lows: instead of so doing told his deputies not to fire upon the people who clamored for WALKER'S blood. Sheriff McLendon, we doubt not, had in mind the Birmingham riot. There a mob came to the jail bent upon lynching Hall, one of the vilest of murderers. The Sheriff warned them off, but they would not go, and then when they persisted in their unawful conduct he allowed his deputies to fire upon them with their Winchester The consequence was that about a dozen citizens were killed. "The innocent bystander" met his usual martyrdom.

The rage of the public hitherto concentrated against Hall now burst out against neither lynched nor hanged by law-but all that the public could do to make him feel the enermity of his offence was done.
If he is living he is undoubtedly a miserade man; if he is dead, very likely he came to his end form grief.

If they attempt violence they must expect violence in return; but, alas! if the Memphis Sheriff had killed a few of the innocent bystanders who give stamina to such mobs, how few people would have | Herald will seen follow it into its new come forward to justify him?

Population and Health.

The marked decrease in the death-rate of Richmond this summer compared with previous summers of late years can be explained in no other way than that it is the result of keeping the city cleaner than usual. We shall be able to make a still further improvement in this direction if our citizens will only help themselves a little more than they do and cease de There are people in the city selves to spend 50 cents for carting off a cluding a large proportion of women. pile of garbage, which they think it is the duty of the Board of Health to cart off.

As to our long-pending sanitary investigation, we trust that it will be made this SUNDAY-SCHOOL PIC-NIC AND year, and an end put to the discussion. Probably it would be well to bring the expert hygienists, whom it is proposed to pert hygienists, whom it is proposed to their sunual pic-nic at the church WEDNES employ, from other States, so that they DAY, July 26, 1893, commencing at 11 A. Let us end this matter this year.

A Safety Fund.

The New York Financial and Commercial Chronicle says of the Canada banking system which some persons (we are not among them) regard as superior to that of the United States what here follows:

"The safety fund is an important feature of the Line of the United States what here follows:

"The safety fund is an important feature of the United States what here follows:

"The safety fund is an important feature of the United States what here follows:

"The safety fund.

"The New York Financial and Commercial in Substitution of the Curation of the Commercial in Substitution of the Commercial in Substitu the statute; it is called "The Bank Circulation Redemption Fund," and the money raised for it is collected under the requirement that every bank shall pay annually to the Minister of Finance a sum equal to 5 per cent. of the average amount of its notes in circulation, such sum to be adjusted according to the average amount of circulation outstanding during the preceding tweive months."

That's a "safety fund" worth having.

And safety fund is a good name for it. Let us have a safety fund for depositors as well as note-holders. Why not?

Let Them Come Soon-When "the lively times" come, which we have been predicting were just ahead of us in the political world, the people will have an opportunity to drop financial questions and let the monetary troubles come to an end.

"lavely times" will surely be here.
Congress is soon to be in session; the Virginia Democratic State Convention will meet next month; the State elections are but a few months off. Would-be judges and United States senators will keep. and United States senators will keep things lively where they are. Business will take advantage of all these things, and come to the front wreathed with Justice Cuantas Dran Long, of the Su-preme Court of Michigan, who has been dropped from the pension-rolls, was get-ting 370 per month "for total helpless-ness." Yet be was able to perform all the duties of a Judge and was getting $7,000 per avnum therefor.

The Alexandria Gassie says that the latest reported outgoing from Gray Gables is that the repost of the Sasaman bill in extra session of Congress, and tariff reform "will not be prosecuted until the PORTSMOUTH FIRES. finances of the country are again upon a stable basis. We came out in favor of this course a month ago and expressly argued that Mr. CARLISLE ought to have a fair chance to show his statesmanship and, therefore, should not be expected to "tackle" the tariff question at the extra session.

A City Banker on the Safety Fund. be established and kept up for the purpanic. A "run" is what the very best of banks dread. An immediate demand for deposits which have been lent out for thirty or sixty days is what every bank dreads whenever financial trouble comes upon the country. We suggest that a sysupon the country. We suggest that a syster of banking be resorted to under the operation of which there can be no panic | red and so no fear of a "run." The assumption that to establish a safety fund would be to reflect upon the banks is fully answered by the fact that the banks are even now required to keep up a "safety fund" for note-holders. What we advocate in this matter is in the interest of the banks-

as well as of the people generally. The best of banks are liable to have a "run" made upon them as a consequence of the bad management of the worst of banks. In the last sixty days bank after bank has been compelled to close its doors, not because of any of its own miswrathful Judge and a somewhat indignant | doings or debts, but because the failure of the bad banks frightened the depositors in the good ones. The banks would stand in their own light if they should foolishly try to save a penny in the shape of taxes and lose a dollar in consequence.

A Richmond banker writes to us as fol-To the Editor of the Dispatch . Your case seems to be stronger than you claim in this morning's paper. The number of failures and the annual resulting less of $1,000,000 represent the losses under the present system. The fact that the public would be protected by the "reserve" fund would reduce or extinguish the less now arising from the "panic" cause, and the "reserve" would, therefore, count for a great deal more proportionately. The scheme you advocate may prove a great boon. The weak point about it seems to be that the government which guarantees may be unable to redeem its piedges. The present troubles come largely from the fear that the government would soon part with all its gold to meet the European balances. If gold and silver dollars are adjusted to equal values as nearly as possible wouldn't the Sheriff. He was arrested, charged that meet the case, together with the reserve with murder, &c., &c.
